

GETTING MARRIED AT ST NICHOLAS CHURCH, WICKHAM

We're delighted that you hope to be married at St Nicholas Church, Wickham. This leaflet will answer some of the questions that you may have as you prepare for your special day.

Additionally, you can find some helpful information about getting married in church on the Church of England website: <https://www.yourchurchwedding.org>

There are legal requirements to be met before you can be married in church, so it is very important that you get in touch with us before confirming a date with your guests and your reception venue.

From 4th May 2021, marriage certificates will no longer be issued in church by the minister at your marriage ceremony. 'Signing the register' will be replaced with the signing of a 'marriage document', which we will take on your behalf to the local Register Office. It is then your responsibility to contact the local Register Office to arrange for your marriage certificate to be issued. For details of the changes in the marriage registration process from 4th May 2021, please see <https://www.yourchurchwedding.org> and <https://www.gov.uk/marriages-civil-partnerships>

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

Banns of marriage ('marriage banns') are an ancient legal tradition. They are the public announcement in church of your intention to marry and the opportunity for anyone to put forward a reason why the marriage may not lawfully take place.

Most Church of England weddings require banns to be read out in church before your wedding day. Banns must be read in the parish/es where you live as well as at the church in which you are to be married: St Nicholas Church, Wickham. Please remember that your parish church is not necessarily the church which is closest to your home. You can find out which is your local parish church by looking at www.achurchnearyou.com

It is your responsibility to make sure that banns are read at the parish church/es where you live and to collect the certificate/s proving that your banns have been read there. If you do not have a banns certificate from your home parish/es, your wedding will not be able to take place at St Nicholas Church, Wickham.

You must have your banns read out in church on three Sundays during the three months before the wedding. At St Nicholas Church, Wickham this will usually happen at the 10.00am service on the first, second and third Sunday of the month two months prior to your wedding. Your minister will be able to confirm these dates for you.

As well as being a legal requirement, the reading of your banns is a special public occasion when people in church hear of your intention to marry. It is an exciting and happy time and you are welcome to invite friends and family to hear your banns being read.

MARRIAGE LICENCES

Most weddings will take place after the calling of banns. However, in some circumstances it is necessary to obtain a licence to marry. Please note that the granting of licences is by no means guaranteed. It is very important that you talk to the Rector as early as possible if any of the following conditions apply so that you can be advised of the process by which a licence may be obtained.

You may need a Common Licence if:

- one or both of you is/are British but live abroad.
- one or both of you live in the UK but your home is not in England or Wales.
- your home address is likely to change during the time when banns would normally be read out.
- your wedding date is too soon to allow enough time for banns to be read.

You may need a Special Licence or a Superintendent Registrar's Certificate to enable you to marry if:

- you have no legal connection with St Nicholas Church, Wickham, and you do not have time to create one before your wedding.

You will need to obtain a Superintendent Registrar's Certificate if:

- one or both of you is a national of a country outside the European Economic Area.
